MINUTES

1. Minutes of last meeting 14th July
   - Approved and signed.

2. Matters arising
   - Year-end certificates are due by 29th September

3. Computer Emergency Response Team (presentation attached) Kieren Lovell- Guest speaker
   - Password guidance has changed, a policy is currently being drafted within the University. 3 long words or a phrase should be used that can be remembered easily without needing to write down or change the password.
   - University systems are currently being updated to enable users to change passwords according to the new password criteria.
   - Standard 8 character passwords with numbers and letters are easily compromised.
   - To check how secure a password is please see https://howsecureishmypassword.net/
   - Turn PC’s off at the end of each day. This means that if there is a virus/compromise on the PC, then it stops running when it has been turned off. When PCs are turned on again, any software updates will be applied which can halt a virus.
   - Spammers target Universities all the time but also at particular vulnerable points in the year when staff are busy, e.g. Friday afternoons, end of term or end of financial year.
   - Use the website https://haveibeenpwned.com/ which provides an indication if there has been a data breach.
   - Send any suspicious emails/activity to cert@cam.ac.uk particularly if emails appear targeted.

Questions raised:
Catherine Bentham: Attempted to change password recently but was unable to do so according to the new criteria.
- The University is working on this so that all systems adhere to the new policy that is being drafted.
Annie Baxter: Clarification as to whether a password management system is endorsed?
- Yes, management systems/apps can be a good way to keep track of passwords, Last Pass is a good provision https://www.lastpass.com/

Stephanie Clare: Will the policy be changed in the University?
- Further clarification that the policy is being drafted and will be changed. Awareness of the need to change the policy has built momentum over recent months.

Jade Tran: Suggestion to alter terminology from ‘password’ to ‘passphrase’.
- Affirmed that this is in line with the draft policy

Catherine Bentham: Clarification as to whether a password should include spaces or dashes
- Whatever works for the individual to be able to remember the password. More guidance will be provided within the policy.

Irina James: Clarification - use of personal passwords
- Whatever works for the individual to be able to remember the password. More guidance will be provided within the policy.

Catherine Bentham: What does it mean if an email account has been compromised?
- May receive spam or send spam to contacts, may provide access to contacts/calendar within email. This depends on the type of compromise.

6. AOB

Sam Skehel: Communication required on excluded countries. Action required from Chris Patten.

Jade Tran: Use of Air BnB.

Post meeting clarification- Airbnb use: Official response obtained from the Head of Insurance- Gillian Armstrong;

The University has a legal duty of care to ensure the safety of its members whilst on University business this extends to individuals in positions of responsibility. The University or the responsible individual may be found to be negligent should a University member be injured or killed whilst staying in unsuitable accommodation which has been arranged by the University. The risk management measures taken by the Safety Office is to advise that the University should not use Airbnb for University related travel.

From a travel insurance perspective there is a condition under the policy that the University and the individual travellers must take reasonable care to avoid injury or loss and must mitigate the extent of the loss.

Any claims relating directly to the use of Airbnb properties or bookings are unlikely to be covered by the insurance. Two actual examples of claims made by members of the University which were not covered are:

1. Money or possessions stolen from unsecured accommodation.
2. Costs of alternative accommodation due to Airbnb booking cancellations or providing unsuitable accommodation.

With regards to medical emergency claims, there have been two serious incidents reported in the press, a carbon monoxide poisoning and a tree falling on a person’s head both resulted in death of an individual whilst staying at Airbnb properties. Whilst the University’s insurer would always assist a University traveller in obtaining medical or other emergency assistance, these types of incidents are caused by substandard accommodation provided by a company known to provide unregulated accommodation. Any person making a booking or taking the trip against the University’s Safety policy should be aware that Airbnb should not be used. Airbnb do not exercise reasonable care in ensuring the safety of the traveller. Medical costs or repatriation of the person or their remains in circumstances such as these would not be met by the insurance policy, the costs not covered by insurance would be passed to the University department.
Any topics that people want to see covered at a future FUG please email Robin.Uttin@admin.cam.ac.uk
